GREAT TWENTIETH CENTURY ARTISTS OF CATALONIA: PICASSO, MIRÓ, DALÍ AH223C

DESCRIPTION:

The work of these three international artists from Catalonia is explored individually. In each case, we will study the acceptance and/or rejection to tradition, the interaction with French art and artists, and personal experience. We will also pay attention to the role of both outside stimuli (war) and inner forces (memory, imagination). The course will take advantage of the Picasso and Miró museums in Barcelona. (3 credits)

PREREQUISITES:

None.

LANGUAGE OF PRESENTATION:

English.

PROFESSOR:

M. CLEAR, PHD

STUDENT OUTCOMES:

By the end of the course students will be able to:

- apply basic art historical tools to describe and explain a painting
- identify the most important facts in the lives of these three painters (Picasso, Dalí and Miró) and apply them to the analysis of their oeuvre
- distinguish the key features and symbols that appear in the art works and interpret their meaning
- describe the different periods in which their work is classified
- compare the most important avant-garde movements of the late 19th century.

LEARNING MEANS:

- LECTURES: delivery of core course content and the opportunity to clarify issues.
- READER: a selection of key texts designed to develop general understanding of the subject matter and foment discussion. All required readings can be found in the course reading package. The readings listed for a particular session must be completed BEFORE coming to class that day.
- FIELD TRIPS TO THE RELEVANT ART MUSEUMS AND GALLERIES: first hand appreciation of artists' oeuvre and their artistic development.
- STUDENT PRESENTATIONS: an occasion to work in groups, practice oral delivery and encourage group discussion.

METHODS OF ASSESSMENT:

The final grade will be determined as follows:

- Final exam: 30%
 - Term paper: 15%
 - Class presentation: 10%
 - Participation: 15%
- EXAMS: four questions to discuss, two of them images of paintings that we have analysed in class.
 - TERM PAPER: the student and the teacher will choose one topic that is suitable to do a research paper. The students can do it alone or maximum in groups of three. The teacher will assess where to find good sources (libraries, museums, etc). This paper has a minimum length of 3600 words.
 - CLASS PRESENTATION: students must show the rest of the class their research during 10 to 15 minutes, a good power point will be required and other material is also accepted (films, photocopies, books, music...).
 - PARTICIPATION: this includes attendance, essays about the museums we visit and participation in class: discussions, interesting questions, readers.
