

MARINA DÍAZ

Date of Birth: 12 September 1969

Nationality: Spanish

EDUCATION

Ph.D. in History (2003). Tufts University (Medford, Massachusetts)

Licenciatura en Ciencias Políticas (1992). Universidad Complutense (Madrid)

ACADEMIC POSITIONS

Lecturer in Spanish, King's College London (2003-05) and Tufts University (1996-2002)

Visiting Professor, Tufts University Summer School (Summer 2003)

Research and Teaching Assistant to the Prince of Asturias Chair of Spanish History (2001-03)

COURSES TAUGHT

Spanish History and Culture (Universitat Pompeu Fabra, Hispanic Studies Program, 2005)

Spanish Culture (King's College London, Modern Language Centre, 2004)

Western Civilization (Tufts University, Summer School, 2003)

Advanced, Intermediate, and Beginners Spanish (Tufts University and King's College London, 1998-2005)

OTHER WORK EXPERIENCE

Translator, Democratic National Conference, Campaign to Elect John Kerry as President of the United States (Summer and Fall 2004).

Served as the primary Spanish translator for campaign materials for the Kerry campaign. Collaborate with Public Administration Strategy Solutions, consultants to the Kerry campaign, and publishers of "best practices" reports. Other translation work for law firms, textbooks, Time Magazine, and other projects on a freelance basis.

PUBLICATIONS

"The dialectics of Realism versus Modernism in Unamuno," in Xon de Ros (ed), Festschrift in Honour of Professor John Butt (London: Tamesis, 2004). Forthcoming.

“The Generation of 1914 and Modernism in Spain.” UMI (Ann Arbor, MI: Universtiy Microforms, 2003). Unedited doctoral dissertation.

“¿La generación clásica? Modernidad, Modernismo y la Generación del 14.” Historia y Política 8 (2002): 143-167.

“Tuñón de Lara y la historiografía española” by José Luis de la Granja [et al] (book review). Sistema (July 2002): 136-136.

FELLOWSHIPS

- “La Caixa” Fellowship (Fulbright Program). Tufts University, 1996-1998
- Research Fellowship awarded by the Spanish Ministry of Education. Department of History of Political Thought and Social Movements. Universidad Complutense, 1993-1996.

SOCIETIES AND MEMBERSHIPS

- American Historical Association
- Society for Spanish and Portuguese Historical Studies
- Modern Language Association
- Iberian Study Group, Center for European Studies, Harvard University

LANGUAGES

- English. Fluent
- Russian. Good reading knowledge, fair speaking ability
- French. Good reading knowledge, fair speaking ability
- German. Beginner’s level